

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

To Entertain For Bride.
Mrs. A. B. Smith will entertain this evening at her home on Gaston avenue with a towel shower of attractive appointments with Miss Harriet Grove Schroeder, bride elect of Paul Everhart Marsh, of Baltimore, as the honor guest. The engagement of Mr. Everhart and Miss Schroeder was recently announced at a shower given at her home in Grafton. Orchids, sweet peas and for-get-me-nots will be used in the decorations and a color scheme of orchid and white will be carried out in the appointments. Towels of various kinds, gifts from the guests, will be hidden here and there about the house and Miss Schroeder will be made to hunt for the trophies. The guests will include the musical friends of the hostess and honor guest. Mrs. Smith will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. C. W. Waddell, Mrs. O. A. Wood and Mrs. L. G. Boggs. Since her engagement Miss Schroeder, who is head of the music department of the Fairmont State Normal school has been extensively entertained and a number of other affairs are to be held for her during this time and the late summer when her marriage takes place. Among the out of town guests who will be present tonight are Mrs. C. F. Schryder and daughter, Miss Louise Schroeder, of Grafton, mother and sister of the bride to be.

To Present Play.
"Green Stockings" will be the title of a play which will be presented by the Glenn F. Barnes class of the Fairmont High school on the evening of May 24 at the high school auditorium. Rehearsals are being held almost daily for the play, which promised to be exceptionally well presented. The play will be presented in three acts and is under the personal supervision of Miss Mary Hervey.

Talent Money.
The sum of $225 was turned into the church treasury to be used in building the new church edifice by Ladies Aid society of the Southern Methodist Episcopal church at a meeting of an enjoyable nature held last evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Talbott on Fairmont avenue. In March 1919 Jennie Engle presented to the society a ten dollar gold piece to be used in building the proposed new church. The ladies invested the money in a cake sale from which they realized the sum of $27 and this was given to twenty seven members of the society to be used as talent money for the church.

Mrs. L. E. Morgan handed in the largest amount of money having made with her dollar the sum of $26. Others turned in good sums of money also and $225 was the sum total of the earnings of the ten dollars of talent money.

Mrs. Engle the donor of the gold piece was the honor guest of the occasion and gave a touching talk to the members which was greatly appreciated. Mrs. Talbott presented Mrs. Engle with a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas as a small token of the appreciation of the society of her serenade speech was made by Miss Dorcas Pritchard. Rev. R. J. York pastor of the church gave an interesting talk in which he congratulated the ladies on their success. Following the program a social hour was observed and refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by the Misses Mary Tibbs, Dorcas Pritchard and Ethel and Jessie Ice.

Have New Son.
The Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Goodwin are the parents of a new son which was born to them at their home on Fairmont avenue yesterday.

To Hold Dinner.
Between 150 and 200 guests will be seated at the dinner to be served at the M. P. Temple on Thursday evening at which time the matter of putting over the congregation's obligations in the interchurch movement will be taken up. The dinner will be served by the Vigilant circle of King's Daughters at six o'clock. There will be in charge for the dinner, J. C. It will be the duty of the incoming producing units of the church.

Entertained Yesterday.
The Mesdames Charles F. Martin, Irving Dunnington and D. S. Laugel were hostesses last evening at the home of the former on Watson avenue at one of the series of parties being held by the members of the M. P. church for the purpose of raising funds for church improvements. Twelve guests were delightfully entertained at a dinner of pretty appointments.

Announce Marriage.
Announcement has been made of the marriage of Ruth L. Straight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Straight, of Riverdale, and Roy C. Amos, of Oakland, Md., which was solemnized on Saturday, April 24. Both are popular young people. Miss Straight had been a teacher in the county schools and Mr. Amos is employed in the Hall garage in this city.

Simple Diet.

The late pope is said to have lived on a very simple diet, as simple as that of the poorest tradesman. In the morning he drank a cupful of coffee, at noon he took a little soup and meat and for supper vegetables and meat. His favorite food was the Italian national dish, polenta.

POLITICAL JEWELRY IS LATEST FAD
G. O. P. WOMEN WEAR TINY ELEPHANTS

MRS. A. L. LIVERMORE

'Tis whispered that a new style in jewelry is to be THE thing from now until the end of the presidential campaign in November.

The fad was started at the National where Republican women proclaimed their political affiliations by wearing a tiny elephant emblem of their party, attached to ribbons about their neck.

Elephant Means Luck.
Since the convention the fashion has become widespread and is strongly encouraged by such astute politicians as Mrs. Arthur J. Livermore, chairman of the New York State Women's Republican Committee. Mrs. Livermore believes that the wearing of the G. O. P. elephant by women is good advertising for the party.

The elephant is not only the badge of the Republican party, but also the time-honored oriental symbol for luck. Many women have lately been wearing, as charms, coral, ivory, jade or amber elephants of the most attractive and exquisite carving.

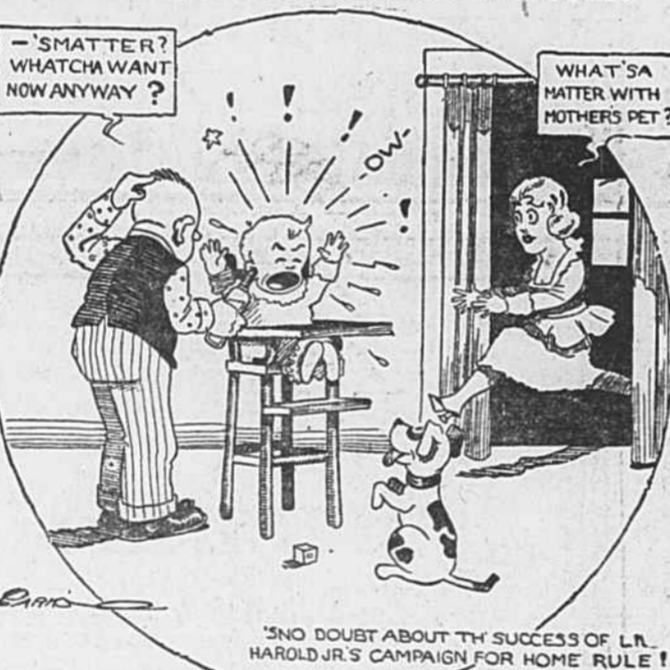

Deserves Well of Posterity.
In 1754, on the 21st of October, James Hillhouse was born in New Haven, Conn. He represented Connecticut in the United States senate.

The elm trees which line the New Haven streets, and give the town its name of Elm city, were planted by Hillhouse.

Curious Fact.

Right Now There's a Deal of Interest in Gingham

—and never, it seems, were Gingham more attractive. We can't blame the girls for deciding in favor of the "Gingham." It's practical for house, street, porch, outing, school wear. And a Gingham frock can be made or bought for less than any other and will give longer service.

Our display of Gingham was never better. All kinds of pretty plaids, checks, stripes in harmonious color combinations are shown in the Domestic Dept., 3rd Annex.

Another Royal Suggestion

BISCUITS, BUNS and ROLLS

From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

BISCUIT! What delight this word suggests. So tender they fairly melt in the mouth, and of such glorious flavor that the appetite is never satisfied. These are the kind of biscuits anyone can make with Royal Baking Powder and these unusual recipes.

Biscuits

2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1 egg
3/4 cup milk or half milk and half water

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt, add shortening and rub in very lightly; add liquid slowly; roll or pat on floured board to about one inch in thickness (handle as little as possible); cut with biscuit cutter. Bake in hot oven 15 to 20 minutes.

Royal Cinnamon Buns

2 1/2 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 tablespoons shortening
1 egg
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup sugar
2 teaspoons cinnamon
4 tablespoons seeded raisins

Sift 2 tablespoons of measured sugar with flour, salt and baking powder; rub shortening in lightly; add beaten egg to water and add slowly. Roll out 1/4 inch thick on floured board; brush with melted butter, sprinkle with sugar, cinnamon and raisins. Roll as for jelly roll; cut into 1/2 inch pieces; place with cut edges up on well-greased pan; sprinkle with a little sugar and cinnamon. Bake in moderate oven 30 to 35 minutes; remove from pan at once.

Parker House Rolls

4 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
6 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 tablespoons shortening
3/4 cups milk

Sift flour, salt and baking powder together. Add melted shortening to milk and add slowly to dry ingredients stirring until smooth. Knead lightly on floured board and roll out 1/2 inch thick. Cut with biscuit cutter. Crease each circle with back of knife one side of center. Butter the small section and fold larger part well over the small. Place one inch apart in greased pan. Allow to stand 15 minutes in warm place. Brush each with melted butter and bake in moderate oven 15 to 20 minutes.
